COMMISSIONE NAZIONALE
PER LE SOCIETÀ E LA BORSA

PRESS RELEASE

Maria Antonietta Scopelliti is the new Secretary General of Consob
She replaces Carlo Deodato. The alternation will be effective from 16 September 2020

Maria Antonietta Scopelliti, the current Head of Markets Division of Consob, is the new Secretary General of the Institute.

Scopelliti replaces the magistrate Carlo Deodato, Secretary General of Consob since April 2019, who chose to come back to the Council of State as Section President.

The alternation was deliberated today by the Commission, to be effective from 16 September next.

The Commission expressed its heartfelt appreciation to Deodato, thanking him for his valuable professional contribution, his appreciated decision-making balance and his human qualities.

Scopelliti, who graduated in Economics and Commerce, has held various positions in Consob, among which Head of the Spot Markets and Derivative Markets Office, Head of the Budget and Financial Management Office, Head of the Studies and Statistics Office. Since 2013 she has been the Head of the Markets Division. She participated to several working groups established by national and international organizations.
