

PRESS RELEASE

Consob, which today ensured the remote management of all institutional activities, will reopen tomorrow, 15 September, its offices, after having carried out the sanitation operations of the Rome and Milan buildings and having recognized that all the swabs carried out by the members of the Commission and by the internal traced staff persons tested negative. The Commission continues to operate making use of the experience acquired, within the framework of the precautions in force.

September 14, 2020