

PRESS RELEASE

The Commissioner Carmine Di Noia from February 2022

will head the OECD Financial Affairs Department

He leaves the post at Consob

As of next 16 February, the Consob Commissioner Carmine Di Noia will take on the role of Director of the Directorate for Financial and Enterprises Affairs (<https://www.oecd.org/daf/>) at the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development - OECD, based in Paris.

Di Noia therefore submitted his resignation from his position in Consob, with effect from 7 February 2022. His mandate would have expired at the beginning of 2023.

The Commissioner expressed his heartfelt thanks to all the members of the Board, to the executives and to the staff of Consob for their collaboration in recent years.
