

PRESS RELEASE

Regulatory sandbox: second time window for submission of projects closed

Yesterday, Tuesday, 5 December 2023, the second time window for the submission of projects related to the possibility of testing, in a protected space, technological innovation activities in banking, finance and insurance closed.

Informal interlocutions with operators interested in requesting support and discussion on industry regulations, specific aspects of the project, or even to participate in future time phases of experimentation continue through the dedicated communication channel on Consob's institutional website.

More information on the possibility of activating informal dialogue can be found in the dedicated section called CONSOB-TECH (Consob-Tech) on the Authority's website.
