

PRESS RELEASE

The mandate of Commissioner Anna Genovese has expired

The Commission, on the occasion of the expiry of the mandate of Commissioner Professor Anna Genovese, expressed deep appreciation and sincere gratitude for the highly qualified professional contribution she made to the Board and to Consob, also as Vicar Chairman, during seven years of intense work. The Commission also remarked the fundamental contribution given by Professor Anna Genovese to the issues of regulation and, in particular, to the development of legislation on sustainable finance and transparency of ESG factors to protect the market and investors.
