		Competent authority	Complies or intends to comply	Comments
				The aforementioned procedure is largely based on Chapter III (ICT-related incident management, classification, and reporting) of Regulation (EU) 2022/2554 (the 'DORA'). The procedure applies to all reported Major ICT-Related Incidents and duly outlines the Authority's response to Major ICT-Related Incidents, including receiving, managing, recording and other responsibilities. Reference to the Joint Guidelines is included in an Annex - 'Costs and Losses', appended to the procedure at issue. This Annex mentions that in line with Article 11(10) and (11) of DORA, and the Joint Guidelines, FEs (other than microenterprises) shall report to competent authorities, upon the Authority's request, an estimation of aggregated annual costs and losses caused by Major ICT-Related Incidents. The template which shall be used for reporting annual costs and losses, is found in the Joint Guidelines itself. The Annex, in line with the Joint Guidelines, further explains what should be reported and how the Financial Entities should estimate the aggregated annual costs and losses. It has also been noted that all credit Institutions, both Sis and LSIs, will be reporting costs and losses through the ECB standard ICT Risk Questionnaire as part of the 'SREP' process.

* Please note that, in the interest of transparency, if a competent authority continues to intend to comply after the application date, it will be considered “non-compliant” unless (A) the guidelines or recommendations relate to a type of institution or instruments which do not currently exist in the jurisdiction concerned; or (B) legislative or regulatory proceedings have been initiated to bring any national measures necessary to comply with the guidelines or recommendations in force in the jurisdiction concerned.

The competent authorities of the EEA States other than the Member States of the European Union are required to notify their compliance with ESMA’s guidelines or recommendations relating to a legal act that has been incorporated in the EEA Agreement. This compliance table reports on guidelines relating to Regulation EU 2022/2554 which has been incorporated in the EEA Agreement.

Notes

Article 16(3) of Regulation (EU) No 1095/2010 (the ESMA Regulation) requires national competent authorities to inform us whether they comply or intend to comply with each set of guidelines or recommendations we issue. If a competent authority does not comply or does not intend to comply it must inform us of the reasons. We decide on a case by case basis whether to publish reasons.

ESMA endeavours to ensure the accuracy of this document, however, the information is provided by the competent authorities and, as such, ESMA cannot accept responsibility for its content or any reliance placed on it.
