Consob, a book for its first 50 years

A study on half a century of the Institute's history now available on the website
On 24 October, a conference at La Sapienza University in Rome

For its first 50 years, Consob has published the book Consob - 50 Years of History. Financial market regulation and supervision from 1974 to 2024.

The study traces half a century of the Institute's life history, which is intimately intertwined with that of the Country and financial markets in Italy.

The volume is now available at www.consob.it.

To mark the 50th Anniversary, a conference on “The Fifty Years of Consob” will be held in the Aula Magna of La Sapienza University in Rome on 24 October.

The Press Office is available for further information.
